HIT TALK

BY MARMALADE'S
PAT FAIRLIE

Dave's rock is bad

ROLF HARRIS is a great guy and "Two Little Boys" was good for the Christmas period, but it's passed its peak and should make way for another number one.

Blue Mink's is great. I never get tired of hearing it even though it's been flogged to death by Radio 1. Madeline Bell is tremendous, and really deserved the break.

I preferred the Everly Brothers version of "All I Have To Do Is Dream" but it's nice to see the song back in the chart by Glen Campbell and Bobbie Gentry.

I don't like Dave Clark 5's "Play Good Old Rock And Roll" at all. It's bad, and only a hit because it has been played so much on the radio. Dave has a good head for business but he's no good at the bongoes.

Arrival's is one of the best of the year, and should be very big. Great.

"Comin' Home" is quite ordinary and wouldn't have done so well had it been by anyone other than Delaney and Bonnie. I don't think it will go very high.

Badfinger's will shoot up the chart because it's so commercial. I prefer the stuff they did as the Iveys, and the material they wrote themselves was better than this Paul McCartney song.

Cliff Richard can do no wrong. He always makes such professional records. Fantastic.
