

PRaise FROM THE STARS

ORMSKIRK'S teenage cartoonist Kevin Smith has received praise for his work from celebrities.

His view of an edition of BBC television's "A Question Of Sport" was applauded by its three stars, chairman David Coleman and team captains Emyln Hughes and Bill Beaumont.

Not only did they give his cartoon of the game the thumbs-up, they also autographed it for him.

And Red Rose Radio's controversial DJ Allan Beswick also put his signature to Kevin's view of his late-night stint at the microphone.

Yet another celebrity gave something more than his autograph to 14 years old Kevin, of Southport Road, an Ormskirk Grammar school pupil.

Cartoonist Rolf Harris wrote a lengthy letter to him giving some helpful criticism of Kevin's work.

Above: A Question Of Sport, Kev-style. Below, Beswick.

