Rolf Harris with Nightingale resident Rosa Plaskwa

Artist, singer and TV personality Rolf Harris CBE, wowed residents of a Clapham care home last Tuesday with performances of his favourites Tie Me Kangaroo Down, Sport, Jake the Peg and the ever popular Waltzing Matilda.

Harris also delighted the audience with sounds of his famous wobble board and didgeridoo, and even had time to get his pen out and draw himself as a kangaroo.

Chief executive of Nightingale, Leon Smith, said: "The performance by Rolf Harris was a wonderful event that everyone thoroughly enjoyed and his songs brought back so many fond memories for so many of our residents."
